Famous Pupils of Glen Iris that we researched:

Colin Brumby

He was born in Melbourne in 1933. He went to Glen iris state school in 1938.

He loved music, so, he wrote music in 1954. He was appointed music master at Sunshine High School. After teaching for three year, however ,in 1959,he decided to head north to Queensland where he taught at Teachers College and became a famous musician.

Colin Mcdonald

Colin was a cricketer, born on the 17th November 1928 at Glen Iris Victoria. He went to Glen Iris School in 1934 and he later played for Australia. He was a Right-hand batter. His last game was against England.

Thomas Pockett

Thomas left G.I.P.S when he was 10 or 11. He started to grow flowers when he was 20 in England. Tom married Louisa at the age of 21.In 1878 he arrived back in Victoria. He was able to work hard to change some sandy ground in Malvern to the beautiful Malvern Public Gardens. He won 1st prize for growing Chrysanthemums and planted many of our trees.

Creighton Burns.

Creighton Burns was born in Melbourne. He attended the University of Melbourne. He became a journalist, and was editor The Age from 1981 to 1989