Interview with Mrs. Widicombe

Hello, children I am Mrs Widicombe.

I was four when I started school at Glen Iris Primary. There were only eight classrooms. Prep and Grade 1 were together in the classroom. There were sixty children in a classroom. Children sat in wooden desks that could open up. The Grade 6s used to play skipping, kick the can and football. The people rang the bell for lunch she was 38 when she started school teacher.
